Facts of Incident

At roughly 3:30 AM, Aaron Smith and I (Aaron was the person I came to the Club with), exited the Sin City Night Club located in Bronx, NY, we then stood on the public sidewalk where multiple cabs were parked, trying to acquire services from one of the many private cab drivers. Hoping they would provide us transportation to the Bushwick section of Brooklyn. After being turned down by multiple cab drivers because they stated they didn't want to travel so far, we then secured transportation to Bushwick. We spoke with a Foreign accent cab driver that agreed to take us to Madison Street located in the Bushwick section in Brooklyn. The cab driver then informed us before we can be transported we will have to pay the fare first. I then asked him how much and he then stated $65 including the toll. Since I had $80 left on my person and the cab driver then stated he didn't have any change to give me for the odd $20 bill. I then re-entered Sin City bought a shot of Hennessy and exited with $65. When I exited my friend Aaron was still conversing with the cab driver. I then handed the $65 to Aaron and Subsequently handed it to the cab driver. At that moment the cab driver told us to "Get in". He asked us do we want our change back, stating "you hand me 2^d dollars more". I then Chuckle stating "No keep the change I just wasn't pay you a 15^d tip, it's already us^d". My friend and I was so drunk from our night in Sin City. we fell asleep in the back of the cab. The cab driver awake us, stating "you here". we then looked around and noticed we was on Madison Ave in Manhattan. we told the cab driver "you must be mistaken, we saw Madison in Brooklyn". The cab driver then told us "No you guys said Manhattan, Get out. The cab driver then became belligerent stating "get out before I get Police". The cab driver then kept driving and pulled over in the presence of police. He informed them that we didn't want to exit his vehicle and that he took us to our destination. we told the "Police" officer we told the driver to take us to Madison Street in Brooklyn, this is Madison Ave in Manhattan." we further informed the officer "we paid him to take us to Brooklyn, Can you please tell him to take us to our original destination, IN which we paid for". The Cab driver then stated "no they say Mahatten, Can I leave Officer, I take them where he want to go". The Officers then placed us under arrest and took the cab driver you can leave sir". The cab driver took off and I was then ~~taken~~ to the precinct. where I was in a holding cell that was over crowded with privacy, no showers, no change of clothing, feel unhealthy food during the brief time I was there. The cell didn't have no toilet and reeked of urine. I was then transported to Mahatten bookings where I was released on a R.O.R. ON the same day of arrest on September 29th, 2015. The Charges was the subsequently dismissed pursuant to C.P.L 160.50 on March 13, 2016.

False
Arrest
ClaimClaim #1: False Arrest

My 1983 Claim for false arrest derives from my forth amendment right to remain free from unreasonable seizures, which includes the right to remain free from an arrest absent of probable cause (Weyant v. Orst; 101 F.3d 845 (2d Cir 1996)). An officer has probable cause to arrest when he or she has "knowledge of reasonable trustworthy information of facts and circumstances that are sufficient to warrant a person of reasonable caution and the belief that the person to be arrested has committed or is committing a crime" (C.I.D.; see also Dunaway v. New York, 442 U.S. 200 (1979)). Under New York law, a police officer may arrest an individual when the officer has probable cause to believe that the individual has committed a petty crime or offense, including a violation, in his presence and in his geographical area of employment. (See New York Criminal Procedure Law § 140.10 (2)(a); § 120 (39)).

Complete Defense to False
Arrest
Claim

under the forth amendment, a ~~warrantless~~ arrest is constitutionally valid if the arresting officers had probable cause to make the arrest at the time of the arrest (see

Beck v. Ohio, 379 U.S. 89, 91 (1964); see also Gerstein v. Pugh, 420 U.S. 103, 111-12 (1974); Brinegar v. United States, 338 U.S. 160, 165 (1949).

The existence of probable cause serves as a legal justification for an arrest and an affirmative defense to a false arrest claim (see Martinez v. City of Stonedeadly, 97 N.Y.
 2d 78 (2001)).

Lack
 of Probable Cause

Lack of probable cause to arrest or prosecute is an essential element of false arrest. (See Rivera v. City of New York) 40 A.D. 3d 334 (2007). Penal Law 165.15 Penalizes citizens for trying to obtain transportation without paying. Now at the time I was placed under arrest, I was not guilty of obtaining transportation without paying. I did in fact pay and the cab driver mistakenly took me to the wrong address, informing the officer that he spoke to that he transported me to the right address and wanted to leave. I paid to be transported to Brooklyn and subsequently after paying the cab driver, the cab driver made a error and transported me to Manhattan.
 When I was arrested I ~~did~~^{pay} and only wanted the cab driver to transport me to the correct address. The Officer did not have probable cause or sufficient amount of evidence to place me under arrest for trying to obtain transportation without paying nor did the cab driver inform the officer I didn't pay. The only dispute between me and the cab driver was in fact he took me to the wrong address.

under

monell Liability against The City of New York

By the City of New York not requiring the NYPD to wear Body Cams equipped with audio/video, they allowed the NYPD to fabricate events leading to citizens arrest, which violates inhabitants of the city constitutional rights to the degree that the practice is so wide spread it has the force of law, now if the NYPD were required to wear body Cams equipped with audio/video at the time of my arrest. It would would of showed conclusive evidence that the plaintiff did in fact pay for his fare and the only dispute between the plaintiff and the cab driver was that the cab driver didn't transport the plaintiff to the correct destination. which this lack of supervision by not ^{requiring} NYPD officers to wear these devices, allowed the officers that arrested me to fabricate that I did not pay for my fare and place me under arrest.
